DCTA's Summer Youth Pass is Your Ticket to Adventure

Our Summer Youth Passes are now available for purchase! At a bargain of $30, kids ages five through 18 can get unlimited access to ride our A-train, Denton and Lewisville Connect buses, Highland Village Connect Shuttle and Community On-Demand, and the University of North Texas (UNT) Campus Shuttle service all summer long!

Popular destinations along our routes include movie theaters, shopping centers, pools, libraries, bowling lanes, and much more for the entire summer. For trip planning help to local summer hang out spots, riders can use our Transit Tracker system to find and track their ride in real-time.

You can purchase our Summer Youth Pass online at DCTAdeal.net, or purchase a pass in person at one of the following locations:

- Downtown Denton Transit Center (DDTC)
- Lewisville City Hall
- Highland Village City Hall

DCTA Adopts FY'18 Strategic Planning Guidance Report

We're committed to providing safe, customer-focused and efficient mobility solutions. In order to accomplish this, we have a Strategic Planning Guidance Report we develop and implement each fiscal year (October 1 through September 30).

This report highlights our commitment to offer more alternative and innovative mobility options to improve the quality of life where residents live, work and play. View our FY'18 report which focuses on key priorities to enable us to be a leader in advancing mobility alternatives in the many communities we serve.
