SEPTEMBER 2018

Attend Our September Open House Meetings

Make plans to attend our open house meetings this month in Denton, Highland Village and Lewisville as we plan to discuss major agency projects and initiatives, including upcoming service changes, new promotions, fare changes, Program of Projects and more.

There will also be an online meeting presentation that people can view if they can't attend the meetings that will be live Monday, September 3, through Friday, September 28, 2018. People will also be able to send comments via the online feedback form.

Visit our website to see when the meetings will take place and to view the online presentation!

DCTA's New Local Fare Promotion

Riders now have lower fare options when riding public transit in North Texas. We recently launched our Local Fare Promotion to encourage ridership and offer an option to offset the increase in regional fares. The promotion will consist of discounted ticket prices across our entire local fare structure and will end on January 14, 2019.
