DCTA Charging Ahead with Positive Train Control Testing

We're moving closer to having our Positive Train Control \(PTC\) technology certified and implemented on our A-train. The Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) recently approved our Revenue Service Demonstration (RSD) application. We're the first in Texas to have RSD on our rail line.

More Transit Options on the Way with DCTA's New RFP

In January, we released a request for proposal (RFP) for Mobility as a Service (MaaS) and are soliciting proposals from firms or contractor teams to provide innovative mobility services for our member cities, contracted communities, partner organizations, as well as large employment centers.

Study: A-train Helps Boost Denton County Economy

Last year, we worked with the Antero Group consulting firm to leverage local and national statistical sources and conducted case studies of local transit-oriented development to share the business case for transit. Since 2011, our A-train has been keeping Denton County open for business.
